Dear Dr. Zhao,

On behalf of the conference organization committee of the Association of Chinese Professors of Social Sciences in the U.S. (ACPSS), I am pleased to notify you that your paper titled "An Analysis on the Comprehensive Reform of China's Rural Property Rights and the Increase of Farmer's Personal Property" has been accepted for presentation at the 20th ACPSS International Conference to be held at State University of New York Buffalo State, Buffalo, New York, U.S.A., from October 17 to 19, 2014. On October 20, you are invited to visit SUNY Buffalo State.

This upcoming conference is a joint event of ACPSS, the Buffalo State Center for China Studies (CCS), and The University at Buffalo Confucius Institute (UBCI) with the conference theme "Challenges and Opportunities of Sustainability in China and Beyond: Environment, Health, Equality and Other Emerging Social Issues." You will join many other scholars from the U.S., China, and other countries and regions of the world to share your research results, exchange ideas, and more importantly get to know each other and make new academic friends. We believe that your presence and presentation will add a great value to our conference and make a contribution to the thriving community of interdisciplinary scholars on China studies.

This is our official copy of invitation letter which you can use to apply for your entry visa to the United States. In the meantime, don't hesitate to contact us if you have any question or request. We look forward to seeing you at SUNY Buffalo State.

Sincerely,

Shaorong Huang (黄少荣), Ph.D.
